COACH EVANS

We, the senior class of Franklin High School, take great honor in dedicating this 1955 KITE to Robert W. Evans.

Coach Evans has brought to the school, as well as to his basketball teams, a sense of good sportsmanship and fair play. After three years of toil, the fruits of his labor came in the form of Franklin's first two Sectional victories in six years. Our association with Mr. Evans has been a profitable and pleasant experience.

ITTY BITTY BUDDIES

CLASS HISTORY

Four of the most exciting and impressive years in the lives of the class of 1955 began on September 4, 1951 when the doors of F.H.S. opened wide to begin a new school year and another round of student activities.

First came football season with all the enthusiasm and excitement that accompanies it. Some of the "Grizzlies to be," thinking about and planning for the team's future, began finding their, then insignificant, places on the freshman team. A few later worked their way into the Cub's reserve squad. The rest of the boys joined the girls in backing them up and adding to the school spirit.

As the years passed, those "Grizzlies to be" became the team of the present; and with hard work and determination under the skillful coaching of "Doc" Lash, they carried the school through many a victory.

Then basketball came into the sports spotlight, and Hoosier Hysteria once again swept the state. In FHS the freshmen, along with the upperclassmen, began training eagerly in hopes that some of them might remain after the final cut. Several remained to represent the freshman class on the reserve squad.

Under the careful coaching of Bob Evans, gradually the boys made their rugged ascent to reach small summits of glory by finally winning the sectional tournament two years in a row, after six years of conceding to other county schools.

There were still those who when the football and basketball seasons had expired, still had much of the original spirit to pour out in backing the baseball team.

Besides our memories of sports life, we recall all the parties given during our high school life. Perhaps most memorable were the class parties where we, forgetting our role as young ladies and gentlemen, competed, boys against girls, in brawling basketball games, later settling down to the more mild pastime of dancing.

Other bits of flavoring through the years have been the formal dances, mixers, all-school plays, victory holidays, joining of various clubs in school, convocations, and even such gruesome things as writing research themes and studying for final exams.

Probably most outstanding in our memories were the nights spent working on "Moonlight Serenade" our prom. Then, more than ever before, our class became a team. Boys clad in chemistry aprons splattered with paint, the more dexterous trying their skill at the tedious job of making tiny rosebuds for the harp favors, those rolling paper for the seemingly endless job of making stars to hang from the crepe paper ceiling—those memories remind us of all the nights and study hall periods spent in Mrs. Pruitt's art room, working against time. Then of the nights before the prom we hold memories of exhaustedly but happily dragging ourselves back and forth across the gym hanging crepe paper, teetering on top of wobbly ladders hanging stars, and intangling ourselves hopelessly in angel hair while trying to create a dreamy atmosphere.

The big night finally came and we, with our dates, half danced, half dragged ourselves around the floor to the music of Dusty Rhodes and his band.

We have named but a few of the wonderful memories which will stay with us long after we have journeyed far from our high school days. We shall never forget the incomparable kindness and help given us by our class sponsors, who through the years have been Mrs. Miller, "Doc" Lash, Mr. Deputy, Mrs. Pruitt, Mr. Spaulding, Mr. Sloop, and Miss Bagby.

We wish, as our time to leave Franklin High School draws near, to express our sincere gratitude to each of the faculty and the administration for making possible our growth throughout these past four years. We feel that with the guidance which we have received from them, we the class of nineteen hundred and fiftyfive, will go out into the world better citizens, and qualified to do any task which we may undertake.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year 1975. We are attending the first reunion of the class of '55 which is being held at the Bellview Hotel, the largest of its kind in the world, situated in the heart of that thriving metropolis called Franklin.

Upon entering the spacious lobby, we are approached by a former Bellview bellhop known as Don "Boris" Jones, who is now a nationally known choir director. Don agrees to show us around the place and heads toward the ballroom. On our way there, we see Shirley Phillips, famous Egyptian dancer, very intrigued by the movement of her hands.

As we enter the ballroom we see Fay Matthews, better known as Liberace, seated at the piano. Dancing at one end of the floor are Helen Wolfschlag, Roberta "Ral" Weekly, and Jeanette Tapscott doing their famous dance of the seven veils. Fay is being accompanied by Bob "Blowing Wild" Lamphier and his mad cat trio which consists of Bob Townsend and Roger Gill.

We now leave the ballroom and rush to the auditorium where a basketball game between Frank Weaver's Barnyard Buckshots, and Roy Adam's Franklin All-Stars is about to begin. We enter just in time to hear the final strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" being played by Connie "George" Richardson on her violin. When the lights go on again, we see among the cheering crowd Barbara Fisher, world's champion hog caller, and that second-hand furniture millionaire, Jim Nash, known as the "Money Mad Millionaire." Leading the cheers is Donna Walters, wearing a tailor-made "F" sweater. It was given to her by Tom "Curly Locks" Handley, who has been nominated as the oddest speaker to entertain at Bellview.

Also in the crowd we see Marianne "Twinkle Toes" Earl, who teaches the "Huckle Buck" to June Duckett's three children by her sixth husband. Sitting behind her is Betty Short, Hollywood's triple-threat singer, dancer, and actress—who has just recovered from a nervous breakdown caused by smoking too many mild, mild Chesterfields, manufactured by Dora Barger. Dora decided it would be cheaper to buy the factory than to buy them by the pack.

As we look into a far corner we see Mary Alice "The Killer" Bowman and her coach, Wilma "Strangler" Coffman, moaning over their latest defeat by world's heavyweight wrestler, Phyllis "Hip Lock" Julian. Not far from them is Bill Cameron, confirmed grouch, talking to Lowell Hendricks, the international playboy, who has just divorced his tenth wife. Sitting on the opposite side of the floor, we see Dan "Fingers" Murray, the famous artist, and Shirley Duncan, his equally famous model, watching the game with vivid interest. Sitting next to her is Loren Hendricks, Franklin's only batchelor, talking about Jim Mullikin, notorious for crashing the parties of famous Indianapolis celebrity Pat Hattabaugh. Jim's most recent episode was crashing the big shin-dig in honor of Richard Waltz, only American citizen to own an automobile. Everyone else is flying the new Chevrolet helicopters sold by Ronnie Scott, president of the Ford Motor Company. Nearby we note Charles Wood, who has just left Ann Sanders for the seventh time, talking to marriage counselor, Mary Etta Harmon.

Daydreaming nearby is Ann Childs who has just won a free trip to the Florida Naval Base by stumping the panel of Illean Vinson, Thelma Heston, and Richard Ratliff on Steve Suckow's "I've Got A Secret" show.

We now leave the gym and go to the main building. Here we see apartments on each side which are the homes of our many friends. We peek in the apartment where Claude Croucher is recovering from a relapse over his last boxing bout in which he was defeated by Frank Haubry, Mr. Universe of 1962. In another room we see Don Campbell lying flat on his back, paralyzed because he thinks he was shot by a Martian space gun operated by Commander Judy Helm of the Space Patrol.

In the next apartment playing cards, are Steve Bryant, inventor of the soleless shoe, Floyd Peyton, owner of Peyton's Pure Milk Company, and Bob Craven, president of Franklin University.

CLASS PROPHECY

Going on down the hall we see Bob "Crash" Howell, winner of the recent 500 Mile Race, talking to Alva Abbott, the famous elevator shoe salesman. Looking up we spy Ronnie Ramsey hanging by his toes from the transom and selling pickled pig's feet in order to make back payments on the alimony for his wife Virginia Coleman. On the same floor is Phyllis Goodman, who is holding the key to Johnny Mack Boyd's hand cuffs, which are for the purpose of keeping him from eating too much.

From the top floor we hear struggling and screaming. In this apartment Shirley Pike, professional weight lifter, is trying to calm Shirley Henderson and Evelyn Green because they became so violent at the sight of an army uniform. We see Connie Hubbard, retired housewife, gossiping with Alma Jo King, inventor of a new bookkeeping system. As we pass the luxury suite, we are reminded of Richard Vandivier, who had to leave early in order to continue his speaking tour as president of the Alcoholics Anonymous.

Wearry, hungry, and tired, we race for the kitchen where Juanita Alley, chief cook, is instructing Shirley Harrell, Connie Neese, Kathleen Harrison, Shirley Grooms, and June Elkins on how to prepare creamed lobsters which were brought in by that famous fisherman and trapper, Stewart Yount.

Leaving the kitchen, we head for the fish pond, where we recognize John Foist, minister of the local Baptist church, talking with Charlene Graves, well-known dime store heiress. As we lean over the edge of the pond to get a better look at it, we see ourselves reflected as we are now—Loyce Harmon who is in process of marrying Archie Stitt, wealthy shoe shine boy; Bill Littell wanted in three states for telling lies to the kiddies about Little Red Riding Hood; and Beverly Follick famous navy wife and author of How To Nail A Navy Man.

Across the pond glides an atomic-powered rowboat driven by Ernie Hill, famous professional football player. It stops and picks us up and carries us away from our friends and takes us into another strange and fascinating journey. We wave good-bye to the Bellview Hotel and our friends which we will never meet again.

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Bob Ellett, V. Pres.; Patty Andrews, Secy; Miss VanLieu, Sponsor; Connie Richardson, Pres.; Bud Jones, Treas.

THIRD ROW: Jim Mullikin, John Edmondson, Allen Demaree, Don Foley, Larry Terhune, John Foist, John Nash, Steve Suckow, Jack Wilkerson, Steve VanAntwerp, George Wood, Mark Rogers.

In former years the Student Council has had little more to do than assign mixer dates and carry out a program which was given it by the office. This year, however, the Council has assumed more power and is truthfully the governing body of the students. Having shed the rather firm restrictions which had, in former years, bound its power, the Student Council, with Connie Richardson as president, has become the most important and powerful organization in school. A look at some of the things which the Council did the past year will give a good impression of the excellent program which it put into effect. The annual Halloween Dance honoring the football team was sponsored by the Council, and it was also responsible for the recording of popular records on the school's new tape recorder. Such projects as scheduling buses for out of town ball games, presenting convocations, cleaning the trophies, revising the school's old constitution, setting the mixer dates, establishing a new club program for next year, and many other notable and worthwhile projects show what a fine job the Council members and their sponsor, Miss VanLieu, carried on the past year.

HI-Y

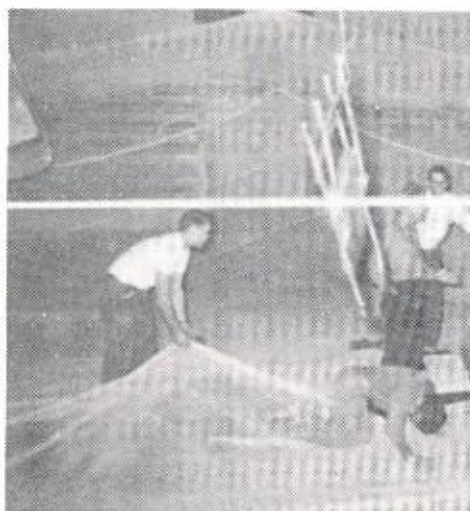

FIRST ROW: Don Jones, Serg.-At-Arms; Bob Townsend, Secy; Loren Hendricks, V. Pres.; Mr. Spaulding, Sponsor; Floyd Peyton, Chap.; Fay Matthews, Hist.; Bob Lamphier, Treas.

Chosen as the most outstanding Hi-Y club in the state last year, this year's club, under the capable leadership of Ronnie Ramsey and Mr. Spaulding, the sponsor, continued to set forth ideals and programs which characterize the type of services for which a good Hi-Y club is noted. Beginning with the selling of concessions at the football games, and ending with the very successful Grizzly Cub Dance, the activities of the club have been numerous and noteworthy. Cleaning the school's water fountains, selling taffy, donating money to the Christmas Good Cheer Fund, shoveling snow from the school's sidewalks, and various other projects have all been carried on in such a way that not only the school, but also the community has profited by the club's duties. In performing these services, however, the Hi-Y Club has not forgotten its main purpose—that of helping its members to become better Christians and creating in them a strong character which will be beneficial to all people.

TRI-HI-Y

FIRST ROW: Connie Richardson, Chaplain; Pat Hattabaugh, Historian; Connie Hubbard, Secy; Miss Stephan, Sponsor; Loyce Harmon, President; Barbara Fisher, Vice-President; Shirley Pike, Treasurer.

FOURTH ROW: Helen Wolfschlag, Charlene DeCoursey, Shirley Harrell, Pat Andrews, Mary Farr, Nancy Webb, Karen Lemley, Lynn LaGrange, Judy Records, Phyllis Julian, June Vest, Melinda Simon, Jeanette Tapscott, Phyllis Beaman.

Tri-Hi-Y, one of the most outstanding girls' organizations in school, has many purposes. One of them is to maintain a high Christian attitude. The spiritual aspect of Tri-Hi-Y has been more fully emphasized this year than ever before. Impressive religious services were an important part of each meeting.

Some of the services performed by the club this year were: selling concessions at the football games, choraling at Christmas for shut-ins, sponsoring get-acquainted day, morning devotions over the P. A. System, Polio Fund Drive and many more.

The Electron has another successful year to add to its record. More pictures and unusual feature stories have added life and sparkle to the already interesting and informative paper.

With Miss Kelly lending a helping hand whenever necessary, the staff put in to effect new ideas and schemes; however without the co-operation, loyalty, and efficiency of the reporters the work could not have been done so successfully.

Under the direction of Mr. Howard Isley, the Girls' Trio, consisting of Lynn LaGrange, Mary Farr, and Pat Oates, emerged to the rating of first division in the State Contest.

A little later on Patty Richardson displayed her ability as a soloist, much to the delight of her audience.

Highlighting a busy year of concerts for the choir was the convocation presented at Shelbyville High School. So ended the whirl of performances.

FOOTBALL VARSITY

In mid-August the football squad reported to Coach Jesse Lash to begin practice. Captain Charles Wood, Frank Weaver, John Foist, Ronnie Ramsey, and Phil Pettit were the returning lettermen. The starting line-up during most of the games was as follows: Weaver and Foist at the ends; Hendricks and McGlocklin at the tackles; Bryant and Deputy at the guards; Parish at center; Ramsey and Lamphier at the halfback slots; Pettit at fullback; and Wood at quarterback. Ken Mahoney, Bill Cook, and Claude Croucher all saw plenty of action in the line. Bud Jones and Frank Lewis were used frequently in the backfield, and Jim Mullikin handled the punting capably during the early part of the season.

The Cubs' 4-5 record indicates an average season, but some of the defeats Franklin suffered could easily have been wins. The boys fought their hearts out all the way and never lost the will to win.

Charles Wood received the annual Most Valuable Player Award at the Lions' Club Football Banquet which was held after the season ended.

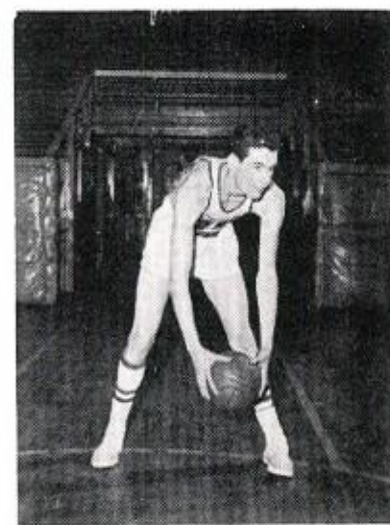

Frank Weaver nailed down an offensive end position on the SCC all-conference team, and Charles Wood was named as line-backer on the defensive unit.

BASKETBALL VARSITY

KNEELING: Floyd Peyton, Stat; Bob Evans, Coach; Ronnie Scott, Manager.

STANDING: Roy Adams, John Boyd, Lowell Hendricks, Jewett McGlocklin, Bill Cameron, John Foist, Frank Weaver, Bob Lamphier, Ralph Ramsey, James Williams, Charles Wood.

With seven lettermen returning and newcomer Bill Cameron, the Cubs expected to greatly better their last season's 16-9 record.

Franklin started off with three decisive wins, but a tough Seymour team ended the victory string by a 55-46 count.

The Cubs suffered three setbacks in a row before dumping the powerful Columbus Bulldogs from the ranks of the undefeated by a 66-60 margin.

The Blue and White of Franklin started the New Year off right with three straight triumphs. Gary Tolleston scraped by the Cubs, 56-55, in a thriller to start a six game losing streak. During this losing streak, the Rushville Lions, SCC champs, ended a 14 game winning streak for the Cubs on their home floor with a slim 55-54 victory.

Coach Bob Evan's team successfully defended Franklin's Sectional Championship to make it two in a row for the Cubs.

Greensburg rallied to gain a 59-54 spread against Franklin in the Columbus Regional.

Although the 11-13 record of the Cubs does not look too impressive, they were beaten badly in only one outing, a 13 point loss to Martinsville. The Cubs gave their all in every game, and the opponents always knew that they had been through a hard battle.

The Cublets, guided by Oren Hollandbeck, finished the season with a respectable 13-7 record. JUNIOR HIGH TEAM

The Junior High team ended the season with a record of nine wins and three losses. The Graders scored 395 points, while only 291 points were scored against them, giving Franklin a total win margin of 104 points over their opponents.

GOLF TEAM

FIRST ROW: Ronnie Scott, Gordon Brown,, Fay Matthews.

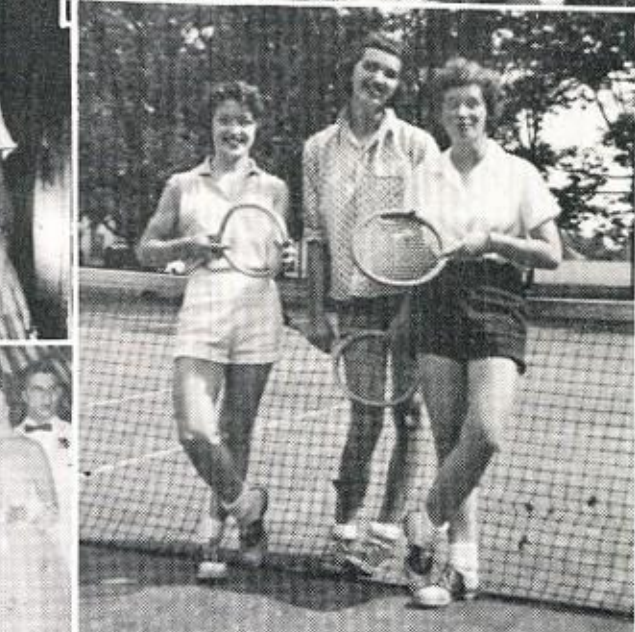

SECOND ROW: Bill Thomas, Russell Smock, Alan Kennedy, Mr. Evans, Coach.

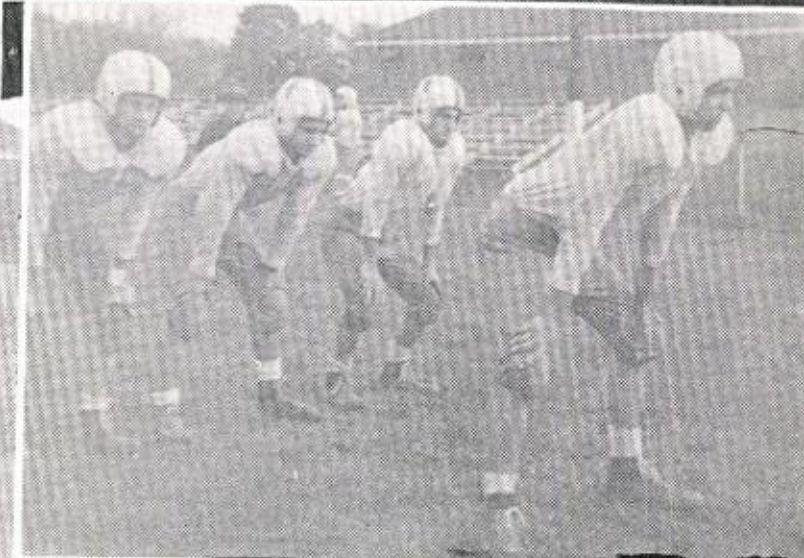

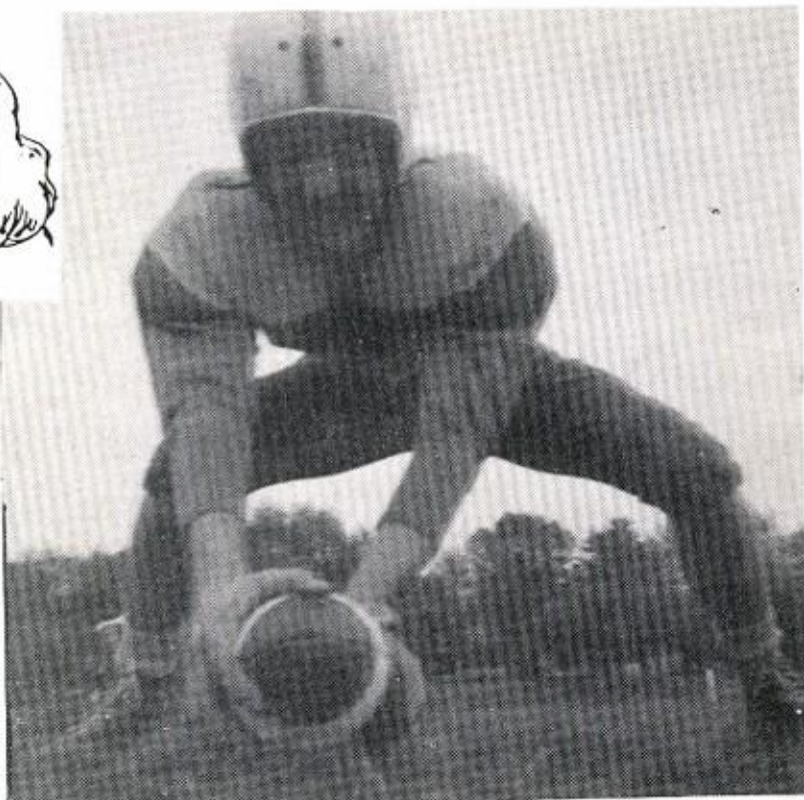

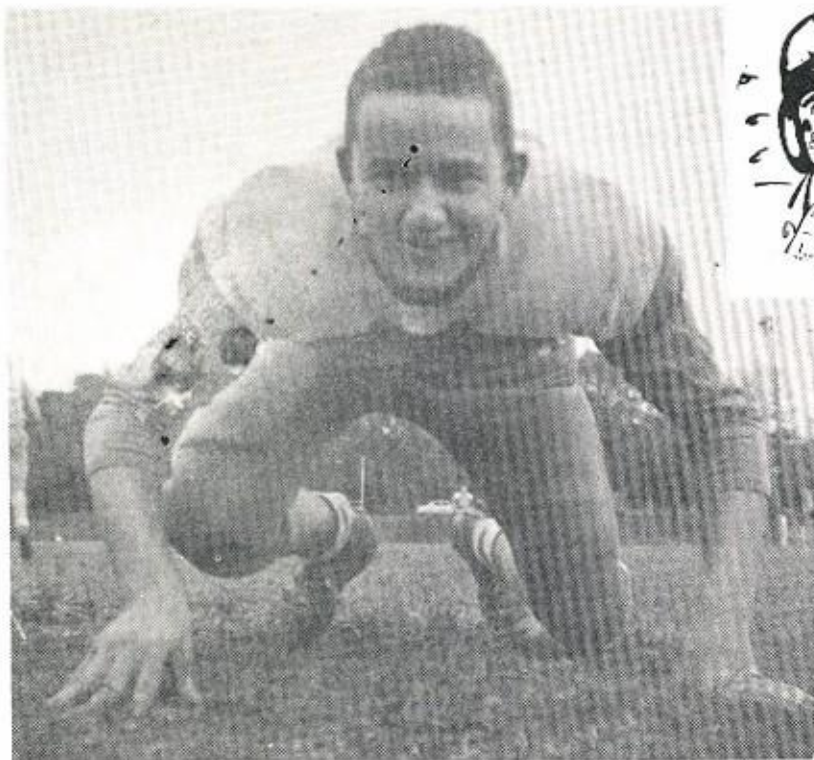

The Franklin High School Golf Team made a very acceptable showing at the SCC golf meet held last fall at the Connersville course. The four-man team of the Cubs finished fourth in the conference, and Alan Kennedy earned a tie for third place in the individual scoring. Kennedy, with an 83, was only five strokes behind the medalist. Combs of Seymour, who had a 78 listing. Faye Matthews ended up with a 90, and Bill Thomas and Russell Smock were close behind with scores of 93 and 96 respectively. The Cubs finished with 361 strokes, while Seymour, the champion, had a 334 total.

Earlier in the fall the Cub linksmen were edged out in a close match, 10-8 by Martinsville. A practice match at Connersville also helped to prepare the boys for the SCC meet.

This spring Coach Bob Evans scheduled seven matches for the Grizzlies. The Cubs also entered the State Sectional Golf Tourney.

Next year's squad should be one of the best in years with four veterans returning.
